

Developing funding proposals in applied mental health and social care: NIHR Research for Patient Benefit Programme

21 October 2021 – an online event - #rdsnwevents2021

Programme

- | | |
|------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10.00 am | Welcome and introduction
Prof Fiona Lobban, Associate Director, Research Design Service North West (RDS NW) |
| 10.10 am | An introduction to the Research for Patient Benefit (RfPB) programme and top tips for applying
Dr Christina Jones, RfPB panel member |
| 10.30 am | The experience of a successful applicant to RfPB
Dr Peter Taylor, University of Manchester |
| 10.50 am | Questions and answer session with the presenters |
| 11.10 am | Break |
| 11.20 am | How RDS can help you with your mental health research RfPB application
Dr Kenny Finlayson, Adviser, RDS NW |
| 11.40 am | Importance of patient and public involvement in mental health research, including the RDS NW Public Involvement Fund and Public Involvement
Chris Lodge, Service User Researcher, Lancaster University
Dr Hazel Morbey, Specialist Public Involvement Adviser, RDS NW |
| 12.00 noon | Question and answer session with the presenters |
| 12.20 pm | Summary and final questions |
| 12.30 pm | End of session |